

FIT5094 IT for Management Decision Making

Semester 1, 2019

Assignment 2 Marking Rubric

Criterion (equal weight)	N:	P – mostly the following:	C – mostly the following:	D – mostly the following:	HD – mostly the criteria for D, plus three or more of:
System Documentation
Content and Quality of Writing	The documentation does not adequately portray and explain the model. Very poor English expression.	The documentation is just adequate.	Using the documentation another analyst could maintain the model. Average standard of expression and presentation.	Good portrayal and explanation of the model. Documentation is well written.	Documentation has been excellently written and presented. Using the documentation another analyst could enhance the model easily.
Stella Architect Model
Model (including interface)	Model is technically unsound or doesn't support the scenario. AUTOMATIC FAIL	Model is substantially correct.	Model is technically sound and reasonably well structured.	Model is technically sound and very well presented.	Model is conceptually sound, has excellent tailored features, and very user-friendly.
Walkthrough	Unable to explain the model correctly. AUTOMATIC FAIL	Exhibits basic knowledge of the model and the Stella Architect package.	Reasonably good demonstration of the model and the Stella Architect package.	Very good demonstration of the model and the Stella Architect package.	Excellent overall presentation of the model.
Model Manipulation	Unable to change or manipulate the model. AUTOMATIC FAIL	Able to successfully change and manipulate the model.	Able to explain the change to a manager.	Changes to the model explained clearly and applied quickly and effectively.	Understands clearly the policy implications of the changes.